

Tales and teeth

Design and Technology

- Can I explore different types of puppets and decide which ones I like?
- Can I make levers, sliders, wheels and axels?
- Can I make a moving diorama?
- Can I evaluate my own work and decide what I would change in the future?

RE

- Can I explore Christianity?
- What does forgiveness really mean?
- What does Easter mean?
- What are the Easter stories?

Literacy

- Can I understand the difference between fact and fiction?
- Can I recognise the features of a report?
- Can I write a fact sheet on wolves?
- Can I use expanded noun phrases to enhance description?
- Can I write my own fact book about a scary animal?

Numeracy

- Can I share numbers?
- Can I build a tally chart, bar graph and pictogram?
- Can I identify and sort 2D and 3D shapes?
- Can I begin to explore fractions?
- Can I use different units of measurement?

Science

- Can I identify a variety of animals.
- Can I understand the difference between carnivores, herbivores and omnivores.
- Can I identify, name and draw the basic parts of the human body.
- Can I look at animals and their offspring.
- Can I discover the basic needs of animals.
- Do I understand why it is important for humans to exercise and eat right.

Art

- Can I explore illustration?
- Can I become an illustrator?
- Can I create art to go with a story?